

Acknowledgements and Awards

	The TODOROFF Teres Merlot 2001 was the first Bulgarian wine to win a medal at the international wine competition Vinalies Internationales 2003 in Paris, France.
	For several years in a row, TODOROFF wines have been mentioned in A Thousand Wines of the World - prestigious publication of the French Enologists' Association.
	The TODOROFF Gallery Cabernet Sauvignon Vintage 2003 won the Gold Medal of the International Wine Competition Vinofest 2005 in Bratislava, Slovakia.
	Jancis Robinson, enology expert of world renown, described the TODOROFF wines as "a series of world best standard red wines" in Financial Times.
Business Ethics Standard	HRH the Prince of Wales, presented in person the TODOROFF wine cellar with a Business Ethics Standard of the Bulgarian Business Leaders' Forum, whose patron he is.
	The prominent American magazine Wine & Spirits listed the TODOROFF Gallery Mavrud Vintage 2003 among the one hundred most recommended wines for 2006.
	TODOROFF Merlot Teres 2005 and Cabernet Sauvignon Teres 2005 received silver medals in the international competition Vinalies Internationales 2007, which took place in Paris

	TODOROFF Cabernet Sauvignon Teres 2005 received silver medal in the competition Mondial de Bruxelles in 2007
	TODOROFF Merlot Gallery 2006 and TODOROFF Golf Challenge 2005 won silvers medals at Mundus Vini, Düsseldorf Germany in 2007.
	TODOROFF Brand is one of the strongest Bulgarian trade marks at Superbrands
	TODOROFF Cabernet Sauvignon Thracian Mystery 2003 received gold medal in the famous competition Mondial de Bruxelles in 2008
	TODOROFF Cabernet Sauvignon Thracian Mystery 2005 received silver medal in the international competition Vinalies Internationales 2009, which took place in Paris, France